Activity Name: Making children visible in work with parents

Learning outcomes

- Outline the importance of practices which respectfully ask parents to consider the effects of their adversity on children.
- Demonstrate how understanding the domains of a child's life can help make children visible in all practice with parents.
- Describe the development of the PERCS conversation guide and how this can support practitioners to have conversations with parents about their children's wellbeing.
- Outline the questions that can support parents to consider their children's wellbeing, in non-judgmental and collaborative ways.

(including completing this form)

After watching or listening to the activity, consider the following:

1. What were three key messages that were covered in the activity?

2. Identify your learning goal and how the activity's content aligned with that goal.

3. What actions are you going to take to use the learnings to improve and/or change your practice? For example:

- Explore the topic further in a supervision session or with a peer/colleague
- Identify and read the latest research
- Undertake additional courses, study or training
- Search MHPN's webinar or podcast libraries for more PD content
- Join an MHPN network to connect with other practitioners for networking, peer support or PD

4. Please note any other reflections on the topic or activity.
