MHPN's Family Violence Practitioner Networks

Funded by the Federal Government, MHPN's National Networks Program aims to support practitioners from a range of disciplines to work together better, with the ultimate aim of improving collaborative care practices to achieve better outcomes for consumers.

MHPN's special interest family violence mental health networks offer practitioners the opportunity to hear from speakers who are leaders in the field of family violence, as well as connect with and learn from peers in their field from a wide range of disciplines.

There are currently many special interest domestic and family violence networks that meet in-person and online all over Australia. There is no cost to join a network.
