

MHPN Webinar: Supporting the Wellbeing of People Experiencing a Trauma Response

Upcoming Conference

The International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation (ISSTD) has convened the largest conference it has ever mounted outside of North America, “Broken Structures, Broken Selves: Complex Trauma in the 21st Century”. This bi-national (Australia and New Zealand) regional conference scheduled for Sydney, Australia, 27th-29th November 2015, register here: <http://www.isst-d.org>

ASCA Resources

MHPN gratefully acknowledges the contribution and support of Adults Surviving Child Abuse (ASCA) in producing this webinar.

ASCA is the leading national organisation working to help adult survivors of complex trauma, including abuse in childhood recover. It is also the author of the nationally and internationally acclaimed Practice Guidelines for Treatment of Complex Trauma and Trauma Informed Care and Service Delivery. ASCA is building its professional networks in a number of ways - you can:

- join ASCA as a Friend of ASCA or Professional member
- apply to be considered for ASCA's referral database of trauma- informed practitioners and agencies
- enrol to attend professional development training.

The Guidelines have been officially recognised as an Accepted Clinical Resource by The Royal Australian College of General Practitioners.
