

Vignette

Lani

- 18-year-old female
- Recently started university. Still living at home with mother
- Parents are separated, but has close relationship with both mother and father
- Diagnosed with anorexia nervosa by a GP after her mother brought her to the GP appointment
- First presentation for a possible eating disorder
- Lani and mothers' concerns do not align and Lani was difficult to engage in the appointment with the GP.